Call Process Update

The Call Committee has received the profiles for pastoral candidates from the district. Pastor McDaniels will be assisting with the next step, which involves reaching out to these candidates to determine if they are open to receiving a call. Once we know which pastors are open to a call, the committee will begin reviewing the profiles and arrange for phone discussions with the candidates. It is difficult to predict how long this part of the process will take. We ask for continued prayers as God works to connect us with our next Pastor. If you would like to view a diagram detailing the call process, you can find this through the e-newsletter, or view a hard copy in the call process binder located in the Narthex.
